

FOOTBALL MADNESS – AUGUST 2008

Robert Cholmondeley and James Thompson arranged a friendly football match with a professional connection of the company, Warings Chartered Accountants of Bolton, for Wednesday (9th July) 6.30pm - 7.30pm at Preston College, St Vincents Road, Fulwood.

Warings brought down their team and some travelling support and Taylor Patterson arranged food & drinks for afterwards at the Black Bull public house in Fulwood.

The weather was fine with the cream of TPA's footballing talent on show; this was an event you really did not want to miss!!

Everyone was welcome from wives, husbands, girlfriends, boyfriends, children, Grandmas, whoever!

On a rain-sodden Wednesday evening, the visitors proved to be the slicker outfit (it must be pointed out that Warings play regularly as a team, whereas this was TPA's first competitive match and they had injuries, but we're not sore losers!!!) eventually running out as well-deserved winners 5-1.

However, with some of TPA's more established players to come back into the team, they are confident the return fixture in Bolton should be a much closer affair.
