

Corporate Insurance division recruits Insurance Professional

Taylor Patterson welcomes a very experienced Insurance Professional as a Senior Client Administrator.

Mike Rooke, from Billinge near Wigan, spent much of his previous career with Insurance giant AIG (now Chartis) and CNA, including being responsible for running AIG's Northern Region as Senior Underwriter, Marine and more recently having worked in Broking in the North West of England.

Mike's career has taken in both Marine and Property roles in Underwriting and Broking and he has also spent time working in the London and Leeds Markets. At Taylor Patterson, Mike will assist in supporting the business development team of the Corporate Insurance division, working alongside Robert Cholmondeley, Director and Peter Millington, Business Development Manager.

Mike, who is ACII qualified, said: "There is a great opportunity to grow the business at Taylor Patterson and I am looking forward to working closely with Robert and his team.

Robert Cholmondeley added: "Mike brings a very high level of expertise to Taylor Patterson. He has a great track record of working at a senior level, understanding the technical requirements of businesses in today's fast changing business environment".
